

Livelihood Beneficiaries

“Sa mga kababaihan na walang hanapbuhay, wag kayong mag-atubiling lumapit sa DOLE. Kung ano ang maibibigay nila sa inyong pangkabuhayan, lumapit kayo dahil malaking tulong sila sa ating mga nawalan ng hanapbuhay.”

-Lorena Vito, former displaced worker, now with a Chicharon Business in Bulacan

“Buong puso po akong nagpapasalamat sa DOLE bilang ahensiyang naging daan upang mapag-aral po namin ang aming mga anak.”

-Roque Morante, parent of former child laborer, now a member and worker of Li-o Parents Association in Romblon

“Ang mga proyekto po ng DOLE, pag ginamit natin ng wasto, siguradong aasenso po tayo.”

- Sheryl E. Monroid, former ambulant vendor, now an owner of a Negokart Barbecue Business in Davao

“Para sa akin, DOLE is not just a Department of Labor and Employment. For me, it is Department of Living Enhancement and Life Enrichment. Pag sinabi nating life enrichment, ia-angat ang antas ng buhay mo.”

-Axel M. Salise, a Person with Disability, now owner of an internet/computer repair shop in Camiguin

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND EMPLOYMENT

DOLE KABUHAYAN PROGRAM

(DOLE Integrated Livelihood Program)

“A program that provides workers with additional income and alternative employment”

Revised as of August 2013

What is DILP or Kabuhayan Program?

DILP or Kabuhayan Program is the DOLE's contribution to the government's agenda of inclusive growth through massive job generation and substantial poverty reduction. It seeks to reduce the vulnerability to risks of the poor, vulnerable and marginalized workers by providing them access to a grant assistance for capacity building on livelihood ventures either for individual or group undertakings.

Who are the eligible beneficiaries of the Kabuhayan Program?

Marginalized Fisherfolks

Women and Youth

Parents or Guardians of Child Laborers

Indigenous People

Elderly Workers

Rebel Returnees

Displaced Workers

Working Persons with Disability

Low/Minimum Wage Earners and Seasonal Workers

What are the components of the Kabuhayan Program?

Kabuhayan Formation or enabling eligible beneficiaries to start individual or group undertakings

Kabuhayan Enhancement or enabling existing livelihood projects to grow into viable and sustainable businesses

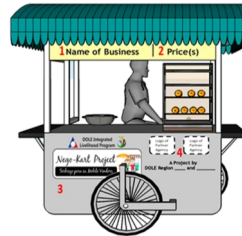

Kabuhayan Restoration or enabling re-establishment of lost or damaged livelihoods due to disasters or calamities

What are the categorization of livelihood projects?

A. Individual Projects

The beneficiaries can avail of the Starter Kit or Negosyo sa Kariton (Nego-Kart), up to a maximum financial assistance of Php 30,000.00 depending on the project requirement.

Beneficiaries of the Pantawid Pamilyang Pilipino Program (4Ps) and the government employees, including those at the local government units, are not eligible to avail of the program.

B. Group Projects

An organization managing a group project should have a Project Management Team and profit sharing scheme, which should be both stipulated in the business plan/proposal, and in the MOA.

15-25 members

Maximum financial assistance of Php 250,000.00

26-50 members

Maximum financial assistance of Php 500,000.00

More than 50 members

Maximum financial assistance of Php 1,000,000.00

RDC priority projects, agribusiness, health and wellness, eco-tourism, manufacturing, small transport, wholesale and retail trade, local based industries based on Local Development Plan, DTI priority products e.g. coffee, coco-coir, cacao or rubber are the eligible projects under the Kabuhayan Program.

- Micro-lending projects
- Projects with construction works
- Projects that would require purchase of motor vehicles, which mean any vehicles propelled by any power using public highways

How to avail assistance under the Kabuhayan Program?
